Kensington, July 4.

The following Address of the Commissary and Clergy of the Colony and Dominion of Virginia, has been presented to his Majesty; who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Commissary and Clergy of the Colony and Dominion of Virginia.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commissary and Clergy of your Colony and Dominion of Virginia, in a general Convention now assembled on Occasion of the present unnatural Rebellion, most humbly beg Leave to express our utter Abhorrence thereof, and to tender our strongest Assurances of promoting, to the best of our Power, the Safety, Honour, and Welfare, of your Majesty's Royal Person, and Administration.

Truly sensible of the wide Difference between a Protestant and a Popish Government, in respect of our Religion and Liberties, we will exert our utmost Endeavours to recommend and enforce all faithful Obedience and Affection to your Majesty, Preserver (under God) of our sacred and civil Constitution, by our Examples, as well as our Instructions, and by our Conduct, as well as by our Prayers.

May these invaluable Blessings, both in Church and State, which we most thankfully enjoy under your Majesty's Protection, descend in an uninterrupted Succession of Protestant Princes in your illustrious House, to latest Posterity.

Permit us to return our grateful Acknowledgments for many and great Benefits received from the worthy Governor sent by your Majesty; an evident Proof, that your paternal Care is not confined to your British Nation, but extends its kindly Influence to us your distant Subjects.

May your Majesty long reign in the Hearts of all your People, both at Home and Abroad.

William Dawson, Commissary.

The following Address of the President and Masters of the College of William and Mary in Virginia, has been presented to his Majesty; who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the President and Masters

ſters of the College of William and Mary in Virginia.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Preſident and Maſters of the College of William and Mary, in your Colony and Dominion of Virginia, beg Leave, with the profoundeſt Humility, to declare our perfect Deteſtation of the preſent impious Rebellion, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, idolatrous Worſhip, and arbitrary Power.

To reſcue us from theſe ſoreſt Evils, our heroic Anceſtors bled in the Field; our bleſſed Martyrs expired in Flames; and our glorious Deliverer, to perpetuate the Profeſſion of our moſt holy Faith, transferr'd the Britiſh Scepter to your Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe, as the only Guardians and Defenders, in a right Line, of our Church and Nation from Superſtition and Bondage.

As this our only Seminary has been founded and endowed by the pious Munificence of your Royal Predeceſſors; ſupported and encouraged by the Benevolence of the principal Inhabitants, and a liberal Grant from the general Aſſembly; and lately recommended, in the tendereſt Manner, to their conſtant Patronage by our moſt worthy Governor; ſo not doubting of your Majeſty's Favour and Protection, (for what may we not promiſe ourſelves under a Sovereign, to whom the Intereſts of Religion and Learning are ſo truly dear?) we will by our Authority enjoin, by our Example enforce upon our Youth, the firmeſt Attachment to the beſt Government in the World. We are determined, to the utmoſt of our Power, not only to ſecure a Proteſtant Church and Adminiſtration under your Majeſty, to the preſent Age; but alſo to derive theſe ineſtimable Bleſſings, under Princes of the reformed Communion in your Royal Family, to future Generations. A lively Senſe of our Happineſs, in each reſpect, makes our Heart burn within us for its perpetual Preſervation.

William Dawſon, Preſident.

The following Addreſs of the Freeholders of the County of Kincardine, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Maule, Eſq; Member of Parliament for the Boroughs of Aberdeen, &c. being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders of the County of Kincardine, met at Drumleithie the 31ſt of May, 1746.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders of the County of Kincardine, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, with our moſt ſincere and hearty Congratulations, for the late glorious and happy Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, under the Command of that great Hero and wiſe General, his Royal Highneſs the Duke, againſt the Rebels at Culloden.

We with grateful Hearts return our moſt unfeigned Thanks to your Majeſty, for (at ſuch a Time) appointing that illuſtrious and great General, who, under God, has been the glorious Inſtrument of our happy Deliverance from arbitrary Power and popiſh Tyranny, and freed us from the horrid Robberies, Violence and Oppreſſion of wicked, lawleſs, and unreaſonable Men, by whoſe Actings it appear'd, that ſetting up a popiſh Pretender on your Majeſty's Throne, and the utter Ruin of the Britiſh Conſtitution both Civil and Sacred, were equally their Deſign.

Great Sir, we ſee that the only Security we have for our holy Religion, our Laws and Liberties, and the Preſervation of our happy Conſtitution, is the Continuance of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Majeſty's Royal Family; and we ſhall always look upon it as our indiſpenſable Duty, as well as our Intereſt, to perſevere in our Loyalty to your Majeſty, and ſteddy Adherence to the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Majeſty's Royal Houſe. We truſt, that the preſent Diſappointment of your Majeſty's Enemies, will further eſtabliſh your Majeſty's Throne, and ſhow them how ridiculous and fooliſh it was in them to make ſo bold and audacious an Attempt.

We moſt heartily wiſh Succeſs to your Majeſty's Arms at Home and Abroad, by Sea and Land; and that to the lateſt Poſterity, it may be the Bleſſing of your Majeſty's Kingdoms to be govern'd by a Proteſtant Prince of your Majeſty's Royal Progeny.

This Addreſs is ſign'd in Name and by Appointment of the ſaid Freeholders, by Sir William Nicolſon of Glenbervie, Baronet, Preſes of the Meeting.

William Nicolſon, Preſes.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Southampton, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Edward Gibbons, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants

Inhabitants of the Town and County of Southampton.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Southampton, intreat your Majeſty's Permiſſion to congratulate the Succeſs of your Arms in Scotland, under the Conduct of the Duke of Cumberland.

Your Majeſty's Appointment of his Royal Highneſs to the Command of your Troops, and thereby yielding to expoſe his valuable Life in a Service that required the Preſence and the Example of ſo diſtinguiſhed and favourite a General, was ſuch an eminent Inſtance of your Majeſty's paternal Care for the Preſervation of your People, and of your Wiſdom in effecting it, as juſtly demands, on our Parts, the warmeſt Returns of Gratitude and Obedience.

The Event has compleatly anſwered our Expectations and our Wiſhes; a moſt unnatural and deteſtable Rebellion, that had made a large Progreſs, and threaten'd immediate Deſtruction to our moſt excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, has been entirely defeated; and France, its avowed Auxiliary, has now the Mortification to dread, that the Firmneſs and Bravery of thoſe Arms, which have procured Tranquillity to your Majeſty's Dominions, will, under the ſame good Providence, and the ſame wiſe and valiant Conduct, obtain Peace for Europe.

It remains only for us now to add our Prayers to our Wiſhes, that your Majeſty's Reign may be very long and very proſperous; that whilſt your faithful Subjects experience the Bleſſings of your Government, your Enemies may feel the Power of it; and that it may be tranſmitted through a Succeſſion of Proteſtant Princes of your illuſtrious Line to our lateſt Poſterity.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrats and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Dunfermline, has been preſented to his Majeſty by James Erskine, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The moſt humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrats and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Dunfermline, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrats and Town Council of Dunfermline, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your ſacred Perſon with our moſt hearty and ſincere Congratulations upon the late glorious Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, which, under the Command of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, that illuſtrious Hero, has defeated the rebellious Attempts of your deluded Subjects, who, weary of your Majeſty's mild and righteous Government, had traiterouſly combined, with the moſt inveterate Enemies to the Britiſh Conſtitution, to raiſe a popiſh Pretender or a romiſh Bigot to the illuſtrious Throne of theſe Realms, and thereby to ſubvert our happy Conſtitution, and valuable Privileges and Liberties.

Permit us, Sir, to return our moſt hearty and unfeigned Thanks to your Majeſty for the timeous and tender Care your Majeſty had of our Safety, when we were oppreſt, and in ſo great Danger from thoſe wicked Miſcreants, in ſending and appointing his Royal Highneſs the Duke to this great and important Service, whoſe Conduct and Bravery, by the Bleſſing of God, produc'd this our happy Deliverance: A Glory reſerv'd for one of your illuſtrious Family, poſſeſs'd of thoſe princely Qualities which render him amiable to thoſe under his Command and all who know him, and formidable to his Enemies. And at the ſame Time we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, at all Times, exert our utmoſt Efforts, as it is our indiſpenſible Duty, to oppoſe every Attempt of your Enemies againſt the Rights of your Crown, and our Liberties and Properties, which we hope this Nation will always enjoy under a Succeſſion of Proteſtant Princes of your Majeſty's Royal Houſe.

As under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government we are the happieſt People in the World; and as theſe wicked Combinators have brought Ruin and Diſgrace on themſelves, ſo we hope, that by Divine Providence from their Diſappointment and Deſtruction, Stability will redound to your Majeſty's Throne, Unity of Affection to your Royal Perſon and Family, and Glory to your Government over a free and happy People.

May God long preſerve your Majeſty as a Bleſſing to theſe Nations: May your Reign be long and proſperous, and Succeſs attend your Majeſty's Arms; and may your Undertakings be bleſt; that you may ſettle the Peace and Happineſs of your Kingdoms upon ſuch laſting Foundations, as that it ſhall not be in the Power of your Enemies to diſturb them, is our moſt hearty and ſincere Wiſh.

Sign'd in our Name, in our Preſence, and by our Appointment, at Dunfermline, the Fourteenth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty ſix Years, by Alex. Miller, Preſes.

The following Addreſs of the Juſtices of Peace, Freeholders, and other Heritors of the Shire of Fife, has been preſented to his Majeſty by David Scot, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of Peace, Freeholders, and other Heritors of the Shire of Fife, met at Cupar the 18th of June, 1746.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the late Succeſs of your Army againſt the Rebels, under the wiſe Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland.

This glorious Victory is of the utmoſt Conſequence, not only to this Nation in particular, (as it has freed us from the diſmal Proſpect of Popery and Slavery, and arbitrary Power) but alſo to all the Proteſtant Powers in Europe.

May the ſame kind Providence that has hitherto directed your paternal Care of a free People, make your Reign over them long and proſperous; and may the Crown of theſe Kingdoms, with the Glory of defending the Proteſtant Religion, and the Liberties of Europe, deſcend for ever to your Royal Iſſue.

Signed in Name and by the Appointment of the Meeting,

Ja. Leſlie, Preſes.

Petersbourg, May 31, O. S. The Empreſs ſets out for Peterhoff To-morrow, for the Summer, where there will be a publick Day once a Week for the foreign Miniſters.

Naples, June 14. In the Night of the 1ſt Inſtant, a Plot was diſcovered by the Officer then on Duty at the Fortreſs of Pizzo Falcone, concerted by the whole Battalion Militia of Calabria Citra, in Garriſon at that Fortreſs, of which the Prince of Biſignano is Colonel, to deſert with their Arms, and to murder the Officers if they ſhould oppoſe their Deſign. The ſaid Battalion was immediately diſarmed and ordered into Arreſt, and the Garriſon was reinforced by a Battalion of veteran Troops. On the 2d, 3d and 7th Inſtant anchored in this Port, from Genoa, ſeveral Tranſport Veſſels, with a Battalion out of the Burgundy Regiment, to recruit, this Regiment having ſuffer'd extremely in the Campaign of Lombardy, and ſpared 200 Men to compleat other Regiments of the King's Troops there. Theſe Tranſports have landed alſo three Battalions of the King's Troops, which capitulated at the Surrender of Valentia, having been ordered to Naples, they not being to ſerve againſt the King of Sardinia and his Allies for twelve Months.

Berlin, June 25. On Wedneſday laſt the 22d Inſtant, the Prince of Pruſſia, Prince Ferdinand, Margrave Charles, and ſeveral Generals, repaired to Potzdam, where his Majeſty's Foot Guards were review'd the Day following. On the 23d ſeveral large Pieces of Cannon, and ſome Mortars, were embarked in order, as it is given out, to be ſent to Stettin.

Berlin, July 2. Her Majeſty the Queen Regent repaired on the 28th paſt to Charlottenburg. At One o'Clock in the Morning a Fire broke out in the Palace there, and ſome Apartments were conſumed. The Queen Mother was ſaved by ſome of the Guards, who broke through one of the Walls of her Bed-Chamber, the Fire having taken in her Anti-Chamber. Her Majeſty returned the ſame Day to Monbijou, where ſhe has been ſomewhat indiſpoſed. His Pruſſian Majeſty likewiſe went back to Potzdam from Charlottenburg, and intends to go on Monday next to Oranienburg. A great deal of Saxon China has been deſtroy'd by the Fire above mentioned.

Vienna, June 29. Colonel O Donnel, who arrived here from Italy, is appointed a Major General: He has brought 29 Pair of Colours and three Standards. The whole Number of Cannon taken was Ten, and the Enemy's whole Loſs in Killed, Wounded and Priſoners, is now affirmed to be no leſs than 14,000 Men. Marquis de Mirepoix is not ſo deſperately wounded as was given out.

Bruſſels, July 7, N. S. By the laſt Advices from the Neighbourhood of Mons, we hear, that the Beſiegers were battering in Breach with 100 Pieces of Cannon and 40 Mortars, but that the Place was not as yet much damaged: That the Beſiegers were preparing 14 Ovens, in order to fire red hot Bullets into the Town. They write from Paris of the 4th Inſtant, that all the Troops remaining in Provence, Languedoc, and Dauphine, in the Rouſſillon and the Lampourdan, as likewiſe thoſe in the Franche Comte, have Orders to march into the County of Nice; that not above 10000 Men can be drawn from thence, by reaſon of the Garriſons; but that it was thought a Detachment of 18 or 20000 Men from Brabant would be ſent to reinforce them. The Deſertion from the French Army in Brabant is extraordinary, the freſheſt Letters from thence make it amount to 8000 Men, including almoſt the whole Regiment of Dauphin. In the Paris Gazette it is own'd, that they loſt 4000 Men in the Battle near Placentia.

Camp at Terhyde, July 8. Marſhal Bathiani has received a Courier, with an Account, that that the Combined Army near Placentia had ſent out a Detachment of their beſt Cavalry, to the Number of 2000, to endeavour to cut their Way through the Imperial and King of Sardinia's Armies, but that the advanced Parties having got Intelligence of them, they were ſurrounded, 1265 taken Priſoners, and the Remainder, except a very few, cut to Pieces. The whole Body of Auſtrian Troops from Germany is this Day arrived at Venlo. The neceſſary Diſpoſitions are making for the Removal of our Army from hence. Laſt Night the Tranſports, having on Board the Britiſh Battalions, arrived at Helvoetſluys, and ſome as far as Willemſtadt.

Hague, July 8. The French are daily receiving ſmall Reinforcements from the Upper Meuſe. The News of the Surrender of Mons is expected every Day. Fort Marguerite, and even Ypres, is ſaid to be razed. The French King was, according to the laſt Letters from Paris, to ſet out on his Return to the Army as this Day Se'n-night. The Conſternation at Paris, upon the Advices from Italy, is reported to be very great. The Prince of Lichtenſtein's ill Health had obliged him to retire again from the Army. According to our laſt Advices, the King of Sardinia's Head Quarters were ſtill at Stradella, but General Bernclau had been ſent to preſs and concert his Junction with the Auſtrian Army.

Willemſtadt, July 9. The Tranſports with the Forces from England arrived at Helvoetſluys on Thurſday, Part of them came up hither that Evening, ſome Yeſterday, and the reſt To-day; they will be diſembarked To-morrow Morning. The Train is alſo arrived. The Tranſports which brought the Heſſians are ſailed back to Leith. The Princeſs of Waldeck is expected here To-day to ſee the Britiſh Forces diſembark. His Britannick Majeſty's Yacht the Catherine came to an Anchor off this Place Yeſterday, with General Ligonier on board; ſhe had been in a Storm of 36 Hours, and two Tranſports were run a-ſhore the Night before, but it was hoped they would be got off at High Water with little or no Damage. We hear by her, that ſeveral People were drowned at the Nore, and that the oldeſt Sailor did not remember to have ſeen ſuch Weather at this Time of Year.

Edinburgh, June 29. Upon Information that John Murray, of Broughton, late Secretary to the Pretender's Son, had on Friday laſt dined at Kilbucco, and had that Night gone to the Houſe of Mr. Hunter of Polmood, who married Mr. Murray's Siſter, John Smith, Serjeant in St. George's Dragoons, with ſeven private Men, then under his Command at Broughton, was order'd thither with a Guide, and Yeſterday at Three o'Clock in the Morning he ſeized Mr. Murray at the Houſe of Polmood; and Yeſterday he was brought before the Lord Juſtice Clerk, and was committed cloſe Priſoner to the Caſtle of Edinburgh. Upon his Examination he declared that the Pretender's Son, with Sullivan and O Neil, both Iriſh, and no other Perſon in Company, did, about four Days after the Battle of Culloden, go off from Moidart in an open Boat, in order to get on board of a Ship, but that he, Murray, being at that Time indiſpos'd, was not able to go with them. The ſaid Murray had been moſtly with Lochiel and his Unkle Major Kennedy, and his Brother, in a ſtarving Way, lying on the Side of Hills all Day, and travelling or wandring all the Night with Scouts at a Mile, or half a Mile's Diſtance, never daring to ſtay two Nights in one Place. Lochiel was very ill, wounded in the Heel, and obliged to uſe a Horſe; and he, Murray, unable to bear Fatigue and Want any longer, croſs'd the Hill, without a Servant, and came by Monteith to the Place where he was taken.
